Steps to obtain a visa and Study Stay

Registration in the *Adab system (https://adab.saorg.ir/PortalADAB) by the introducing company or the applicant for education

Submit documents along with the SAURG code to the university's recruitment and admissions unit

Review of the file by the university and issuance of initial admission

Sending documents by the admissions unit to the university consulate to obtain an academic exemption

Applying for a study visa through the university consulate and sending it to the student

Registering a student visa in your home country and entering Iran with a student visa

Visit the university for final admission and registration

Submit a certificate of employment and relevant forms to receive a study permit from the provincial consulate

Issuance of a student card by the University Education Department